

St. Anastasia's Council of Catholic Women Are Proudly Serving our Community!

FORT PIERCE- St. Anastasia's Council of Catholic Women, an affiliation of the National Council of Catholic Women (NCCW), is proud to serve our community. The Council hosted its first breakfast on Sunday, September 26th, and it was a huge success! The dynamic group of women served crème brulee French toast, egg casserole, and homemade baked goods.

The Council has monthly meetings during which they plan upcoming functions such as fashion show fundraisers, chocolate Sunday bake sales, and other events. The group has already planned breakfasts for October 24th and November 14th from 8:30-11:30 AM for a charge of $5 per person.

On Sunday, October 24th, all John Carroll High School 1990-1999 graduates will also be honored at St. Anastasia's 11:30 mass. Those graduates are encouraged to attend the breakfast in the Parish Hall prior to attending their mass of recognition. The JCHS alumni from the years 2000-2010 will be recognized on Sunday, November 14th during the 11:30 mass and are also welcome to attend the breakfast on that date to mingle with classmates and friends.

John Carroll High School has been recognizing its alumni family by years of graduation since August and will conclude the celebrations on Saturday, December 11th, at the Centennial Celebration Party to be held at the 4:00 PM mass. All alumni are encouraged to attend the mass and reception following in the Parish Hall. If you plan to attend any of the events above, please RSVP to Darlene at (772) 461-2233 or RectoryOffice@stanastasiachurch.org.

The National Council of Catholic Women acts through its membership to support, empower, and educate all Catholic women in spirituality, leadership, and service. NCCW programs respond with Gospel values to the needs of the Church and society in the modern world.
