

Christ The King / Viva Cristo Rey

Come and celebrate The KING and Prince of Peace! Sunday, November 24, 2013

What is happening?

In place of all the regular scheduled Masses at St. Anastasia Church, Juan Diego Center, and the Notre Dame Catholic Mission, on Sunday, November 24th, our community of families and friends will celebrate one Mass together.

Times:

8:00 a.m. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at St. Anastasia Church.

9:00 a.m. Procession from St. A's Church to JCHS Football Stadium.

10:00 a.m. The Divine Liturgy (Mass), with three different choirs & traditions.

Followed by a Christian concert, featuring the band "Redemption" led by Bryan Boudreault from Holy Name of Jesus Church in West Palm Beach.

Where?

At the John Carroll High School Football Stadium (JCHS) at 10:00 a.m.

What will I need?

Chairs and blankets will be allowed on the football field for seating. There will be limited bleacher seating on the visitor's side of the field. Everyone is invited to stay after the conclusion of the Mass for a Christian concert, fellowship and tailgating. All are welcome to come and celebrate Christ as Our King and Prince of Peace.

Why?

To bring to a close the Year of Faith & to publicly celebrate Christ as Our King & Savior of the World.

Please Note: The Saturday Vigil Mass at 4:00p.m. on November 23rd will be celebrated as normal.

St. Anastasia ~ Official Pilgrim Site
Plenary Indulgence for the Year of Faith
October 11, 2012 to November 24, 2013

- P Parking
-  Procession route
- JCHS John Carroll High School

8:00a.m. ~ Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at St. Anastasia Church

Music, Prayer & Silence

9:00a.m. ~ Procession from St. Anastasia Church to JCHS Football Stadium

Procession will begin on the east side of St. Anastasia Church on 33rd St. & will continue to the traffic light and head west onto Delaware Ave. and proceed to the JCHS practice field and out to the Football Stadium, where Mass will be celebrated.

10:00a.m. ~ The Divine Liturgy (Mass)

*Be sure to bring your chairs and blankets.

Remember: There will be a Christian concert immediately following Christ the King Mass, featuring "Redemption" led by Bryan Boudreault. Please remember to bring food for fellowship and tailgating following the Mass.